Ashland County Community Foundation

...for Generations to Come
GREETINGS to our
FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS in ASHLAND COUNTY!

The Ashland County Community Foundation is pleased to present our Annual Report for the fiscal year ended on June 30, 2013. Eighteen remarkable years, with even more remarkable milestones being achieved, all due to the bountiful generosity of our Ashland County community:

- $24.5 million in assets under stewardship...
- $6 million re-invested in Ashland County...
- 6,000 donors funding the future...

It is ACCF’s privilege to serve the residents in every corner of Ashland County...to touch the lives of graduating high school seniors with the gift of a scholarship...to further the causes of our many non-profit agencies through ACCF’s Community Grants and Women’s Fund programs...to assist educators with ACCF’s Teacher Mini-Grants program...to honor Ashland County’s philanthropic youth through ACCF’s Kids Who Care event...and to recognize those who have remembered ACCF with an estate gift through our Legacy Leaders program.

Care for our parish better than ever before.” To assist in this mission and philosophy, PSBC chose to create an agency endowment fund with gifted estate dollars. Summary of Financial Statements
The format of our financial statement follows the guidelines issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) for nonprofit organizations.
2013 Kids Who Care Top Achievers & Nominees

Top Achievers

- Ava Bracken, 1st grader at Edison Elementary School, nominated by Nathan Smith, for selling t-shirts and running a lemonade stand to raise money and awareness for ALS (Lou Gehrig’s Disease) in honor of her Grandpa Steve.

  "We thought about our grandpa because he has ALS. It can’t get better," Bracken said, adding that she liked the project because she got to drink lemonade and because it felt good to help others.

- Emily Ebert, 8th grader at Ashland Middle School, nominated by Kymberle A. Irwin, for volunteering at the Ashland Public Library for the Summer Reading Program and donating used books to the Ashland Middle School.

  "It’s great to see kids read and escape into those worlds," she said. “To have a good vocabulary and sense of adventure is irreplaceable.”

- Juniors and seniors at Ashland County-West Holmes Career Center, nominated by Jerry Strausbaugh, for completing projects to raise money, provide support, promote peace and provide leadership development that benefits Ashland County or international projects of Rotary.

  "It’s important to help people because someday you might be the one who needs help," Trayter said. “Even if you’re not, it feels good doing it.”

Nominees

Each nominee receives a certificate and a tree seedling. The trees represent a Greek proverb about investing in the future: A society grows when old men plant trees to provide shade under which they will never sit. To plant a tree is really an unselfish act. It’s a hopeful gesture. You hope that it will provide shade or shelter or safety, quite possibly for someone that you’ve never even met. Each Top Achiever receives a $100 check to pay it forward to a charity of their choice.

Since 2008, students have “paid it forward” to the following charities:

- ALS Association of Northern Ohio Chapter
- American Cancer Society
- American Legion Post #48

Scholarship Funds

Richard and Nancy Esbenshade Scholarship

Donor: Richard and Nancy Esbenshade

A 1946 AHS grad, Dick Esbenshade attended Stanford University, spent two years in the US Army, then graduated from Harvard Law School. Nancy graduated from Northwestern University, then received her masters in psychiatric social work. Marrying in 1958, they moved to Los Angeles where Dick practiced law for more than 50 years. Knowing the importance of a top quality education and scholarship assistance, the Esbenshades created a scholarship to assist AHS graduates attending Ivy League and selected schools. The scholarship is renewable all four years.

Recipient: Marcus Fuller, 2011 Ashland High School graduate

Marcus is at Brown University majoring in Business Entrepreneurship and Organizations with Concentration on Organizational Studies. He is a member of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity and has been backup quarterback for the Brown Bears the last two years and will be the starter next season. Community Grants

Appleseed Community Mental Health Center was awarded a grant to support the Ashland County Detention Center Youth Employment Initiative.

With 167 students in attendance, weekly rehabilitative employment sessions focused on making changes, how to look for a job, writing resumes, understanding basic customer service skills, dressing for success, effective communication, meeting employer expectations, interviewing and how to keep a job.

“One student felt the impact of the session and said after he gets discharged that he would like to get a job assisting Mr. Yoder. The student filled out a sample employment application and got approval from his mother.” – Arlen Yoder, Supported Employment Coordinator

Due to the success of the program, another foundation awarded a grant to extend the sessions another 10 weeks. ACCF is glad to have been able to help.

A grant to Ashland Main Street was made to support the development of a downtown comprehensive plan which was supplemented with matching dollars.

Sandra Hedlund Tunnell, Executive Director of Ashland Main Street reported, “Receiving a grant from the Community Foundation gave our organization legitimacy in its first year, and gave us leverage while discussing our contract with the downtown consultant; knowing that our contribution to the Downtown Plan was funded through the Community Foundation, an organization that is fiscally responsible and community-oriented, made both Ashland Main Street and this contract more powerful.”

The Foundation is pleased to have been able to provide needed dollars as well as validation and confidence in the Ashland Main Street organization and its mission.

Teacher Mini-Grants

Regina Herrick, St. Edward School, received a mini-grant for day-long school residencies to include interactive workshops taught by actors from the Illusion Factory of Akron and an afternoon performance.

“In the workshop that involved creating a story from known characters, one of my ‘quiet’ students presented an idea that everyone thought was wonderful. She was able to shine in the element of a multi-aged group. Her peers lauded her creativity and added dimensions to her story. She then put the elements together and beamed! We (the students and faculty) appreciated the mini-grant and ACCF’s generous support of education in the classroom” – Regina Herrick, teacher
AS CONVENER
Strategic Planning
The combined task force of the Strategic Planning Initiative continues to meet annually, under the direction of ACCF, to outline its goals and accomplishments and to further define a process to keep their six defined initiatives ongoing. Begun in 2009, this public-private partnership involved a cross section of community representatives to develop and implement a strategic plan for the City and County of Ashland. With six long-range objectives identified, subcommittees were developed. Extensive work has been completed, major accomplishments achieved and ongoing efforts continue to be made. The six area objectives identified were improving educational facilities; formation of an early childhood and post-secondary education task force; improving internet access; service duplication elimination; downtown revitalizations; and beautification of entry corridors.

AS COLLABORATOR
The Ashland County Community Foundation is pleased to continue collaborative efforts with several area organizations to include United Way, Samaritan Hospital Foundation and the Ashland Area Chamber of Commerce. For example, ACCF has hosted Leadership Ashland for a morning for the past two years and very much appreciates being included in the class curriculum. As part of the June wrap-up session, ACCF provides an overview of the Community Foundation, its history and mission, and three-part role of advancing philanthropy as donor agent, grant provider and community player.

THROUGH COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND INVOLVEMENT
Science Camp
The 2013 Charles F. Kettering Honors Science Camp was held June 17-20 with 18 7th, 8th and 9th grade students attending. The camp, held at Ashland University, focuses on human health. To date, 180 students have attended the camp since its inception in 2006.

A few comments from students:
• "It was awesome and helped me realize how much I really love science."
• "The camp is a great opportunity to experience certain elements of science that cannot be experienced in a normal classroom setting."
• "It was very fun with a lot of cool experiments and information."
• "This is the first science camp I have been to and due to my experience here, I'm hoping that it won't be the last."
• "It was a great time and I got to meet many awesome new people."

Hess Educational Loans
In 2012-2013, 11 loans totaling $13,200 were provided to qualifying traditional and non-traditional students pursuing higher education. Since the Foundation’s administration of the Fund in 1998, 338 total loans have been awarded. Hess loans have been available since 1923 to Ashland County residents and graduates of Ashland County high schools. $71,267 is currently in use helping students attend college.

ACCF is committed to service and involvement in our community…its present and its future. Over the past year, the Foundation has been privileged to participate via speaking engagements and in various ways with Ashland Main Street, Perrysville Economic Development, Mohican Area Growth Foundation and the Chamber of Commerce. Additionally, ACCF has increased its outreach via the Ashland and Loudonville Rotary Clubs and Noon Lions Club, among others.
